

Chino Hills State Park

Volunteer Duty Statement

Trail Guide

Title: Trail Guide Volunteer

Purpose: Our purpose for this program is to maintain a visible presence in the park and to provide high quality customer service and roving interpretation to park visitors.

Duties: Upon successful completion of docent training course, Trail Guides will maintain visible presence in the park; meeting and greeting park visitors; providing roving educational opportunities to visitors; documenting damage to park property (natural or intentional); report prohibited activities (off-road use, camp or cooking fires, dogs on trails, etc.). Additionally, volunteers will assist in interpretation in the Discovery Center. Volunteers must be in good physical health and be able to walk a mile on uneven terrain.

Reports to: Volunteer Coordinator

Skills

Qualifications: Volunteers are expected to be friendly, courteous, and possess good communication skills. They must be willing to learn and share their knowledge of the park's resources with visitors. They must be willing to make a serious time commitment to attend training, meetings, and fill shifts. Volunteers must work well with others; this includes staff and other volunteers. First Aid and CPR certification desired but not required.

Time Commitment: Two 4 hour shifts or 8 hours per month

Benefits: Training on the natural and cultural history of the area, opportunity to make new friends while enriching and enhancing the experience of park visitors, and earn a District State Park Pass for over 100 hours per year of volunteering or a State Park Pass if over 200 hours per year of volunteering and to have fun.

I have read the above job description, and I am willing to complete the necessary training and paperwork to become a Trail Guide Volunteer at Chino Hills State Park.
